To New Students

What would you like?

Is it a bit of knowledge you're after?

You'll get it. Whatever it is you WANT, you'll get it. Wake Forest College says, "Come here, teacher, doctor, lawyer, statesman, citizen or potential whatever-you-are.

"Come here and let me guide you in this thing of finding out what life's all about—this seeking after knowledge, this learning how to live."

What has Wake Forest got to offer ME? Ah, but you'll find out. In the process of learning you'll begin to understand what learned men have written their volumes about: "Wake Forest is unique."

This Student Handbook is a mere attempt to outline for you some of the why's of the uniqueness—to provide you with a preview of what Wake Forest is like, what it has to offer you, and what it will expect of you as a member of its distinguished community.

Herein is assembled information vital to your success as a student at Wake Forest College. To appreciate what Wake Forest IS, you need to know how it BECAME. And to get the most from your "process of education," you need to be acquainted with its many-phased structure.

Your Handbook then will serve you as a manual which, once you've looked it through carefully, you will want to keep as an ever-handy reference to help you adjust to this community of learning, to help remove a few of the I-don't-know's.

Come in.

ATMOSPHERE

Traditions

Often there is the remark, "That's what I like about Wake Forest."

It may be the situation, "—Everybody speaks to you as you walk across the campus," or "—You can go and talk with the professors if you need to," or "—People here aren't afraid to speak up for something . . ."

Whatever it is, it's probably a tradition, a distinctive Wake Forest tradition.

And College traditions play a major role in creating "the Wake Forest spirit." Take that bit about speaking to people—friendliness—nothing turmped up about it. The Wake Forest custom of speaking to people, whether you know them or not, is time-honored. From the first day of orientation through your graduation day, a smile and a greeting is the expected result whenever you meet anyone on the campus.

Again, about talking with professors—the profs here haven't bothered to acknowledge the modern notion that there's an impersonal barrier separating the professor and the student. Their treatment-as-an-individual attitude is another thing that's carried over from the "old" campus, the influence of which we won't deny.

No, you don't discount traditions. They have been an integral part of the College since its beginning in 1834. They've accumulated as the college has grown. And since the move to WinstonSalem still more are being added.

The traditions are the tangibles and the intangibles all fused together. You'll find yourself in the midst of them—the ringing of the victory bell atop the Library, parties at "the Barn," the Magnolia Festival, gabfests in the snack bar, the crazy antics of a Demon Deacon at a pep rally to "Beat Carolina."

These things go to help make up Wake Forest traditions.

It's up to you how important they are— and what the new ones will be.

History

The College was founded Feb. 3, 1834, as Wake Forest Institute. Dr. Samuel Wait was the first principal. An agency of the Baptist State Convention, the school had a twofold purpose—to give collegiate instruction in the arts and sciences, and to give training under Christian influences, especially to provide educated ministers.

For five years Wake Forest was a manual labor school, training students in agriculture as well as in the liberal arts. But in December, 1838, it was rechartered as Wake Forest College. Four men received the Bachelor of Arts degree when the first class graduated in June, 1839.

Wake Forest was exclusively a college of liberal arts until June, 1894, when the School of Law was established. The School of Medicine was formed in May, 1902, was moved to Winston-Salem in 1941, and is now known as the Bowman Gray School of Medicine of Wake Forest College.

The rest of the college followed the medical school to Winston-Salem in 1956, moving from the town of Wake Forest in Wake County. The old campus and buildings were sold to the Southern Baptist Convention, and Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary is now located there.

A three-volume work entitled A History of Wake Forest College was written several years ago by the late Dr. G. W. Paschal, Greek professor at the College, and is for sale at the College.

The Campus

And the green grass grew all around . . .

The modified Georgian buildings, the walkways, the Magnolias have blended into the expansive Winston-Salem hillside grooved out to provide a new home for Wake Forest College in 1956.

One class has come and gone without having seen or formed an attachment for the "old" campus in Wake County. Some of the newness of the "new" campus has begun to wear off and the transplanted College now looks as if it BELONGS.

The move to Winston-Salem was the culmination of extensive planning and fund-raising toward realizing the needs for physical expansion. In 1946, the Trustees of the College and the Baptist State Convention accepted an offer made by the Z. Smith Reynolds Foundation of Winston-Salem to give the College $350,000 annually in perpetuity on condition that it move to Winston-Salem.

The Charles H. Babcock family donated a part of their Reynolda estate outside Winston-Salem for the new campus, and groundbreaking ceremonies were held Oct. 15, 1951, with Harry Truman, then President of the United States, delivering the principal address.

In 1955 the Reynolds Foundation increased the annual payments to the College to $500,000. The acutal move to the new campus was completed in June, 1956, and summer school classes began at that time.

Now, four years later, 14 brick buildings stand surrounded by grass, trees and shrubbery on the campus. The architecture is modified Georgian, designed by Jens F. Larson. In addition to the college buildings, there are 10 faculty apartment buildiings, 56 apartments and a trailer camp for married students, and the president's home.

THE BUILDINGS ARE AS FOLLOWS:

WAIT CHAPEL, at the head of the campus plaza. The chapel, named for Dr. Samuel Wait, the college's first president, doubles as a center of campus religious activity and an auditorium. It is the home of the campus Baptist church. Attached to Wait Chapel on the northern end is WINGATE HALL, a four-story building housing the church's educational departments and the College's departments of religion, music, philosophy, and sociology.

Also located in the building is PAUL PRICE DAVIS MEMORIAL CHAPEL.

REYNOLDA HALL, at the southern end of the Plaza, facing Wait Chapel, is the administrative and student activities center. The wing on the west end of the building houses all administrative offices of the College and the wing on the east end provides for student organizations and activities. Also in the building are the cafeteria, a soda shop, lounges, conference rooms, banquet rooms, classrooms, and the campus restaurant, the Magnolia Room.

THE Z. SMITH REYNOLDS LIBRARY building is presently divided between classrooms, offices, and library rooms. Four floors of rooms for reading, reference and other uses are available, and the library has a capacity for about one million books.

W. N. REYNOLDS GYMNASIUM contains facilities for practically all sports and also houses the ROTC department. Basketball courts, a swimming pool, courts for other indoor sports, and classrooms and offices for the physical education and athletic departments are in the building.

THE SCIENCE BUILDING accommodates the basic sciences, chemistry, biology and physics. This building contains many laboratories, classrooms, offices and a large lecture room.

THE LAW BUILDING, reserved for the School of Law, has classrooms, a moot court and assembly room, and the law library, among other things.

Wake Forest men live in four quadrangles of dormitories bordering the plaza. Northeast of the plaza is POTEAT DORM. TAYLOR DORM is on the northwest, KITCHIN DORM is southeast and DAVIS DORM is southwest. Connecting Taylor and Poteat with Wait Chapel are two wings, EFIRD and HUFFMAN Halls.

BOSTWICK and JOHNSON DORMITORIES for women are located at the south end of the campus.

Facing the plaza and housed in the men's dorms are a post office, a bank, a book store, men's and women's clothing stores, a barber shop and a photography studio. Wake Forest Laundry is housed in Taylor Dorm.

The "blend" of the campus is now being interrupted, unobjectionably, by further expansion. Construction of a new life science building is underway and plans call for construction of a new dormitory for women to begin almost immediately.

The Winston Area

Winston-Salem recently acquired the coveted title, "All-America City," an honor which recognizes the city's long-term progressive efforts to become the well-rounded place to live.

The student-native relationship is a healthy one and constantly improving as mutual appreciation increases.

The Winston-Salem area abounds with recreational and cultural opportunities for the student. In addition to a concert-lecture series sponsored by the College, students may attend programs of such local groups as the Civic Music Association, the Little Theater, the Winston-Salem Symphony and the Winston-Salem Operetta Association.

For relaxation and light entertainment the city has several motion picture theaters and miniature golf courses. The City Recreation Department operates 25 recreation centers and four parks, with facilities for all types of indoor and outdoor activities. Many fine restaurants are located in and around the Winston-Salem area.

Student golfers may play at two public courses, Hillcrest Golf Club and Reynolds Park, and at the Old Town Club. In baseball, the Winston-Salem Red Birds is the local farm team of the St. Louis Cardinals in the Class B Carolina League.

Other opportunities for recreation may be found in the area surrounding the city. "Tanglewood," the William and Kate B. Reynolds Memorial Park, offers swimming, horseback riding, fishing, games, miniature golf and picnicking.

Hanging Rock State Park, located 30 miles north of Winston, and Pilot Mountain Park, 25 miles northwest of the city, attract many students during the fall and spring months. The scenic Blue Ridge Parkway is only 47 miles from the campus.

Of special interest is Old Salem, being restored as one of the finest examples of colonial life in the United States. Salem Academy, founded in 1772, is the oldest preparatory school for girls in the South. Salem College is a distinguished four-year college for women. Traditional services of the Moravian Church at Easter and at Christmas are attended by people from all over the nation.

Winston-Salem has a total of 121 churches, including 22 denominations and one interdenominational church.

Reynolda Gardens

Beautiful Reynolda Gardens, where Wake Forest students may stroll leisurely in the same tranquil setting and fashion of Southern gentlemen and ladies of another era, became one of the College's treasured heritages in February, 1958.

The Gardens are a gift of the Mary Reynolds Babcock Foundation and Charles H. Babcock.

The Gardens, replete with weeping Japanese cherry trees, are a favorite setting for student marriages.

In deeding the property to the College, Foundation officers said, "It is the purpose and desire of the grantors to enhance the educational facilities of Wake Forest College, particularly in the field of botany, and to enhance the cultural service which Wake Forest College is now rendering to the community and to the state, and to establish Reynolda Gardens of Wake Forest College."

Meet Mark Reece

Yes, new student, meet MARK REECE, our congenial DIRECTOR OF STUDENT AFFAIRS.

He's a man in a unique position to help bridge the gap between student and administrator, a man behind many scenes. Mark Reece is, what you might say, "a good man to know."

Comment from the Dean: "New students should get to know him as soon as possible."

His job deals with non-academic mattters, such as activities of the Student Union and the social fraternities. He aids in assembling various bulletins, brochures and handbooks, assists student committees in planning programs, complaints or get-togethers. He often acts as a spokesman for the student, handles certain conduct problems and in other ways concerns himself with the interests of the student.

His job is "deisgned with YOU in mind."

He's easy to talk with—look him up.

. . . and the CHAPLAIN

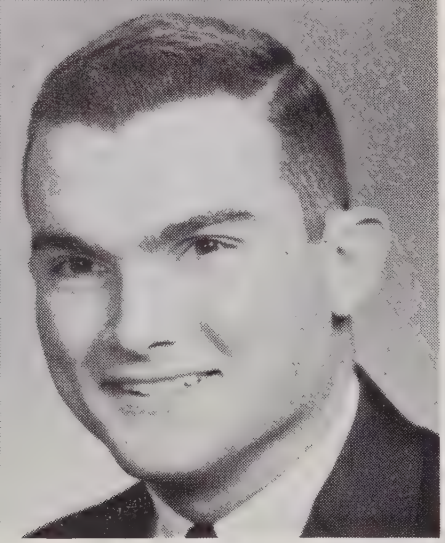
Chaplain of the College is DR. L. H. HOLLINGSWORTH, another "down to earth" person who works directly with the students.

Dr. Hollingsworth came to Wake Forest last year as the College's first full time chaplain. His job consists largely of work with the Baptist Student Union and with co-ordinating the activities of other denominational groups— Methodists, Presbyterian, and Episcopalain.

He also directs a weekly chapel program.

Chaplain Hollingsworth feels that, "Christian education is a venture of faith . . . in a climate of academic freedom."



HONOR COUNCIL CHAIRMAN

Francis Fenderson

STUDENT BODY PRESIDENT

Howard Bullard

Student Government

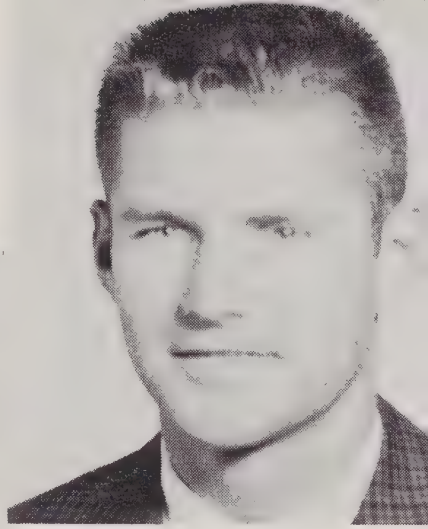
Wake Forest students enjoy a high degree of independence in regulating their own behavior and activities. The Student Government is organized under the Constitution of the Student Body.

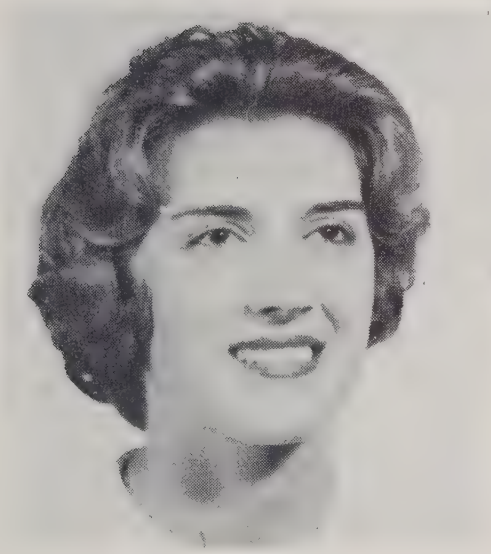
The president of the student body, central figure in Student Government, is HOWARD BULLARD. Other student body officers are PETE DANIEL, vice-president; ANNA RUTH CURRENT, secretary; and BUCK KITCHIN, treasurer.

The Student Legislature has full responsibility for making all laws relative to student body activities. Its members represent the four undergraduate classes. By virtue of his office, the student body vice-president is Speaker of the Legislature.

STUDENT BODY VICE-PRESIDENT

Pete Daniels





WGA PRESIDENT

Betty Bruce Howard

Student committees are set up by the Legislature to work parallel with faculty committees. Chairmen of six student committees plus the four student body officers form the executive cabinet of the student body, which discusses matters to be presented to the Legislature.

The Legislature is a voice that is heard willingly and with respect by the administration as it speaks in behalf of student concerns.

The Honor Council, composed of eight men and eight women, is the judicial branch of the Student Government. Sitting as a court, the Council rules on the innocence or guilt of a person charged with violating the Honor System. When a student is found to be guilty, the Council determines his penalty.

FRANCIS FENDERSON is chairman of the Honor Council. LINDA SUE ADAMS is secretary.

From The Alumni

Fifteen thousand of us once sat where you sit. Now we are just about everywhere—businessmen, doctors, lawyers, educators, ministers, missionaries, writers, farmers, manufacturers, husbands, wives, parents.

Both you and we will always hold one thing in common—a growing appreciation of our college days and devotion to the high ideals that become part of us at Wake Forest.

Looking over our shoulders, we hail you with affection and faith as our younger brothers and sisters in the fellowship of our alma mater's growing family. We have preceded you a bit in time along the journey, but we shall be joined henceforth with you in meaningful companionship because of our common heritage.

While you are on the Wake Forest campus, we want you to know about the aims and program of the Alumni Association. You will become automatically a member of this organization at the end of your student days at the College.

Objectives of the Association are "to nourish friendly relations among its members; to maintain and strengthen in alumni the best spirit and ideals of the College; to secure cooperation of alumni and the public in helping the College to render the most effective service possible."

Throughout North Carolina and in other states alumni clubs meet periodically to receive news from and about the College and to achieve the objectives mentioned above. The Wake Forest Magazine goes to every alumnus whose address is known, keeping him abreast of campus life and activities of other alumni.

In material support, alumni have given in large and small sums almost two million dollars in recent years for construction on the new campus. One of them made a bequest, valued at more than a million dollars, for a scholarship fund for the benefit of students. Others have also established scholarships of great value. Alumni giving annually through a living endowment program are a perennial source of strength to the College in its service to present and future students.

Scores of alumni have been generous of their time, talents, interest, influence, and devotion in helping to make and keep their alma mater strong and useful. Your opportunities at Wake Forest will be greater because of them.

Alumni at Wake Forest College rank high among those of other colleges and universities in their achievements in numerous fields as good citizens and servants of mankind. They are bound inseparably with the health of their alma mater by ties effectively expressed in a description of "The Alumnus" by Dr. Henry T. Heald, head of the Ford Foundation:

"The ultimate continuing strength of a university rests with its alumni. Their association is ended only with death, and even then new generations of alumni provide the continuity that perpetuates a university. Its officers come and go, its faculties change, its programs are modified, and its buildings are replaced, but its alumni maintain a lifelong relationship to their university. They are keepers of the tradition, preferred stockholders of the enterprise, the mark of its accomplishment.

"From the time he is selected as an undergraduate, the alumnus is irrevocably associated with and attached to his university. If his university gains renown, some rubs off on him. If he attains prominence and success, his university basks in the reflected glory. He of all people has the greatest stake in his university. He follows its progress with pride; he serves as an unofficial ambassador to the community; he contributes in many ways to its leadership."

So, on behalf of the thousands of Wake Forest men and women who are, as our fight song says, "unrivaled by any," we hail you with delight and welcome you to the ranks of a loyal company.

Our congratulations upon the rich opportunities opening to you on the Wake Forest campus!

W. Fred Williams,
President, WFC Alumni Association
Eugene Olive,
Director of Alumni Activities

CAMPUS ACTIVITIES

The Student Union

A full-scale Student Union program is in operation at Wake Forest, established since the move to the new campus as part of the College's progressive attempts to meet the needs of the students—ALL the students.

The Student Union, voted into being by the students themselves and directed by student leaders, seeks to provide social activities and entertainment throughout the year.

A complete program of activities has been planned for the 1960-61 semesters. Included will be the annual Homecoming Dance, sponsored jointly by the Student Union and the Interfraternity Council.

Continuing activities will be the weekly on-campus movies, talent shows, concerts, lectures and, of course, parties at "The Barn," where (confidentially) dancing is permitted—not ON campus, but almost.

The Student Union also plans to sponsor two spring vacation trips, in the wake of a "highly successful" excursion last year to Nassau, provided at a minimum of cost. Tentative plans for 1960-61 call for tours to New York and Bermuda.

CHARLIE CHATHAM, a senior of Greenwich, Connecticut, is president. SID EAGLES, of Walstonburg, is vice-president and BETTY EARP of Winston-Salem is secretary.

All students, including incoming freshmen, may participate on committees.

A fee of $1.50 will be collected from each student at registration to pay for the semester's Student Union activities. Another $1.50 will be required in the spring.

Students have found the Student Union a welcome supplement to the College social structure.

Social Fraternities

One of the first questions facing a male student who enrolls at Wake Forest is whether he will join one of the ten Greek-letter social fraternities on campus. Each of these organizations starts the school year with a "rushing" program designed to interest new students in joining its ranks.

During the year fraternities have numerous dances and informal parties and are active in such phases of college life as intramural athletics and campus politics. Furthermore, fraternities urge their members to patici-pate in extracurricular activities and excell in scholastic work.

If the new student decides to pledge a social fraternity, he must then choose which one, provided that he receives an invitation from more than one group. When a person joins a fraternity, he is selecting an organization and a group of men with whom he wishes to be affiliated during his entire college career. It is a decision that should not be made hastily or without serious consideration.

The Interfraternity Council is the central governing body for all fraternities on campus. Its main purpose, in addition to regulating rushing, pledging and initiation of students, is to sponsor social functions for the fraternity men and their guests. The annual IFC dances, usually featuring a big-name band, are the highlights of fraternity social life. The faculty committee on farternities works in conjunction with the IFC to maintain high standards of conduct and scholarship among fraternity men.

Vic Smith of Pi Kappa Alpha is president of the IFC. The fraternities and their presidents for 1960-61 are:

Alpha Sigma Phi ..... Barry Davidson
Delta Sigma Phi ..... Francis Fenderson
Kappa Alpha ..... Jim Geiger
Kappa Sigma ..... Howard Bullard
Lambda Chi Alpha ..... Carl Hoffman
Pi Kappa Alpha ..... Vic Smith
Sigma Chi ..... George Williamson
Sigma Phi Epsilon ..... Bill Skippon
Sigma Pi ..... Frank McGrath
Theta Chi ..... Sid Disher

Fraternity Rushing Rules

1. These rushing regulations, applying to rushing of all students except as specifically stated otherwise, shall take effect on the first day of fall registration and continue in effect until October 10, 1960. (For purposes of these regulations a fraternity man is an active member, an alumnus, a pledge or anyone authorized as an agent of the fraternity.)

2. No freshman may be in any fraternity section after 7:30 P.M. Monday through Thursday night. The sole exception to this rule is the evening smoker, held between 8 and 11 P.M. This smoker shall be considered as formal. Attendance will be limited to men, although wives of students and of faculty members and house mothers may serve refreshments. The afternoon smoker shall not end any later than 6 P.M.

3. No fraternity man (as previously defined) may be in the freshman dormitories (Poteat or Kitchin) between the hours of 8:30 P.M. and 8 A.M. Monday through Thursday. No rushing between these hours will be permitted and freshmen seen outside the freshman dormitories during these hours shall only be extended a casual greeting.

4. Between the opening of school and October 10, each fraternity may have two individual parties, which may be held on the week-ends of September 24, October 1, or October 8, 1960. A fraternity may spend not more than $150 for these two parties combined and an itemized account of all expenses must be presented to the IFC Social Chairman for each party. On the evening of September 17, each fraternity will hold an open house on campus, the idea being for rushees to circulate throughout the ten houses on campus with their dates if they wish. The maximum a fraternity may spend on this party is $40, and no combo, regardless of origin or cost, will be permitted.

5. No rushing entertainment may be provided for or offered to any rushee at any time except at the evening or afternon smokers and at the three parties mentioned in Rule 4.

6. No fraternity may spend more than $40 overall for the evening smoker, or more than $35 overall for the afternoon smoker. The treasurer of each fraternity shall file an itemized list of smoker expenses with the IFC Social Chairman.

7. No smokers may be held except on the Wake Forest College campus as defined by the boundaries of the Reynolda land grant or within 400 yards of Reynolda Hall.

8. Silence period will start at 7 P.M. October 9, 1960 and extend until the man reaches the section of his choice on October 10, 1960 at 7 P.M. or until midnight on that date. During this period no rushee is to visit any fraternity section or converse with any fraternity man.

9. At 7 P.M. October 10, 1960 each freshman rushee shall indicate his choice of a fraternity to the Dean of the College and then go to the fraternity which he intends to pledge. One IFC representative from each of the ten fraternities, respectively, will be stationed outside the Dean's office to enforce silence period.

10. Any fraternity violating rules 2-9 may be penalized by a fine of $50 for each infraction.

11. Upperclassmen and transfers with at least sophomore standing (24 hours and 24 quality points) may be pledged at any time. Summer school freshmen may not be pledged until October 10, 1960.

12. No man may be pledged to a social fraternity, and, after relinquishing or being deprived of his pledgeship to the aforesaid fraternity, repledge the original fraternity or pledge another social fraternity during the same semester.

13. Pledging shall be free and open after October 10, 1960.

Initiation Requirements

The Interfraternity Council has set up minimum requirements which each student must meet in order to be eligible for initiation into a social fraternity. The IFC Constitution, Article IX, Section 3, provides that:

A. Any student transferring to the College with 24 or more hours and an equal number of quality points is immediately eligible for initiation.

B. No student, unless covered in (A) above, may be initiated nito any fraternity until he shall have passed at least 12 hours of work and made at least 12 quality points in the first semester he is enrolled in the College or passed at least 12 hours of work and made at least 12 quality points at any subsequent grade period (9 weeks or end of semester).

C. Any student on probation for any reason shall not be initiated until his period of probation is completed.

Violation of the provision is punishable in accordance with the provisions of the IFC Constitution.

Chapter Room Use

A. Married women, accompanied by their husbands, shall be allowed in normally recognized social or chapter rooms (on the first floor only) of fraternities, and a mother or father shall be considered sufficient chaperone for his or her own daughter. This is permissible between the hours of 2-9 P.M.

B. Mixed groups shall be allowed in normally recognized social chapter rooms (on the first floor only) of fraternities between the hours of 12 noon and 7 P.M. on Saturdays of home football games or Interfraternity Council dances provided there is present either chaperones or a lady designated by the Social Committee as "chapter hostess."

C. Except as stated in A and B above, all general regulations, except article 5, shall be applicable to parties given ni fraternity quarters.

D. Violations of B or C, if reported to the Social Committee and verified by it, shall result in the denial of house and group social privileges for a period of time to be fixed by the Social Committee, but not to extend beyond the start of the next succeeding academic year; further, such violation even though disciplined by the Social Committee may still be subject to such actions as are provided in the Constitution of the Student Government Council, or as may be determined by the Executive and/or the Constitution of the Interfraternity Committee of the Faculty.

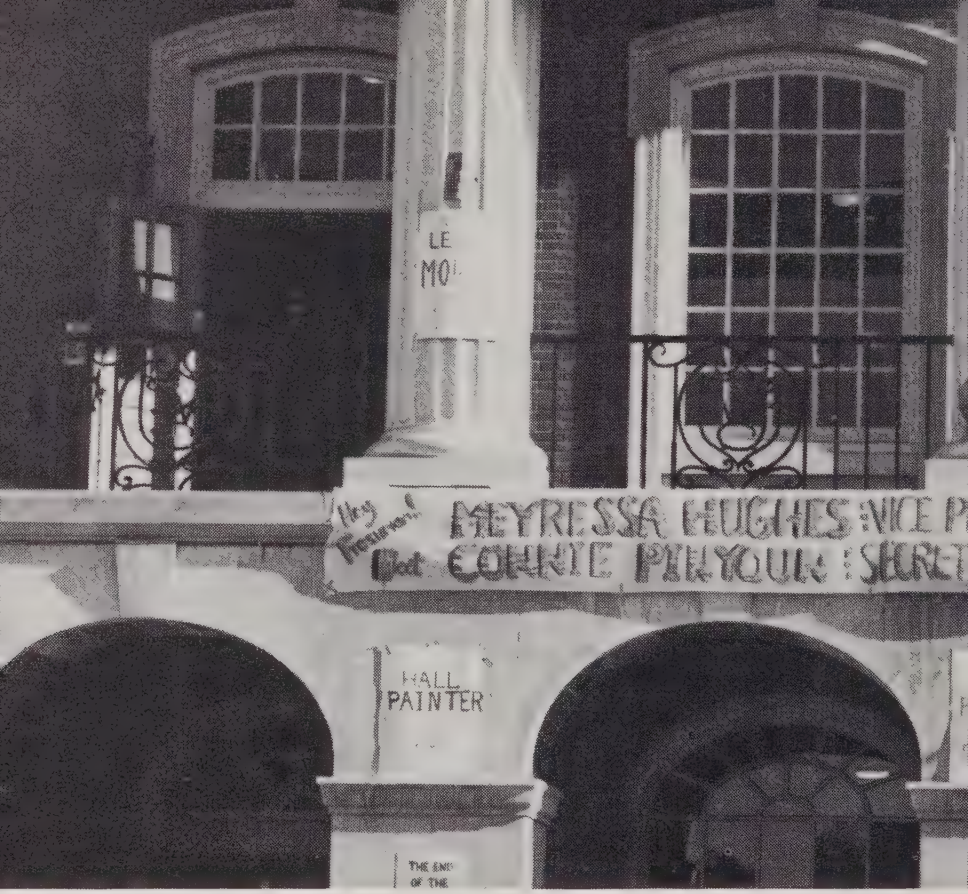
The ROTC Program

A senior unit of the United States Army Reserve Officers Training Corps was established at Wake Forest College in 1951. The general objective of the program is to produce officers who possess the leadership and scholastic attributes essential to progressive and continual development as Reserve Officers in the Army of the United States.

The ROTC program is divided into a Basic Course (freshmen and sophomores) and an Advanced Course (juniors and seniors). Except when credit for previous training or service is allowed, failure to enroll in ROTC as an academic freshman will preclude the four-year college student from participation in the program.

A student enrolled in ROTC who meets prescribed requirements may receive deferment from selective service. Uniforms, military text books and equipment are provided students by the United States Government. Students selected for the Advanced Course receive total pay, for the two years and summer camp, of about $650.00.

After successful completion of the four year ROTC program, and the receipt of a baccalaureate degree, students are commissioned second lieutenants in the U. S. Army Reserve. If selected as a Distinguished Military Graduate, a student may be appointed a second lieutenant in the Regular Army.



Campus Politics

Wake Forest traditionally has a two-party political system, one composed primarily of fraternity men, the other composed primarily of non-fraternity men (Independs) and coeds.

Party alignments, of course, are arbitrary and unpredictably subject to change.

The parties have varied alliances and varied names from year to year. Last year, the so-called fraternity party was the "Progressive Party," made up of nine fraternities and their allies.

The other party, the "United Party," was the so-called non-fraternity party. It consisted chiefly of Independents, many of the coeds and the remaining fraternity.

The parties are usually about equally divided in strength, neither necessarily holding a majority of the vote-getting power in any particular election and certainly not from year to year. During the past two years, for example, there was something of a "change of administration." In 1958-59, the non-fraternity party captured most of the top offices. Last year, the newly-named Progressive Party was successful.

In the spring of each year, the parties meet separately in small-scale "conventions" to nominate their choices of candidates for the 38 Student Government positions to be filled for the following year.

These conventions in minature assume many of the aspects of a national political convention, with the huddles and caucuses and candidates busily waiting to be drafted.

Names of the candidates are published a specified length of time in advance of the time for elections and the campaigning is begun. For several days the campus is a flurry of posters and leaflets and signs boasting the attributes of the many candidates.

The excitement of election day is one of the highlights of the year. Students gather on the patio to celebrate the returns brought to them via a loud speaker from WFDD.

Freshman Class officers are elected in the fall, shortly after the beginning of the fall semester. Each freshman officer wishing to run for an office may do so by obtaining the signatures of eight of his classmates, in accordance with Statute V of the Constitution.

Freshman elections, too, generate a lot of excitement, with the campus again flooded with colorful "propaganda" and hand-shaking politicians.

Student Publications

Publications at Wake Forest include a newspaper, a magazine, an annual and a radio station. Through these media students are informed of campus happenings, learn what other students are thinking, and are supplied with a record of a year's activities at the College.

The publications are governed by a Faculty Publications Board composed of faculty advisers and a Student Publication Board composed of the editors and business managers from each staff. The four offices are located on "Pub Row" in the east wing of Reynolda Hall's second floor. Participation is open to all students.

OLD GOLD AND BLACK

Old Gold and Black, student newspaper, is distributed each Monday during the year, except during and immediately after holiday periods. It is the principal means of student communication and its pages are filled with general and sports news, feature articles, editorials, pictures and advertising. It is a week-by-week story of Wake Forest—what happened and what will happen, with interpretation of the news.

Last year, in addition to an All-American rating, the paper was rated number 2 in the South among all college papers. RAY ROLLINS is the editor, and CHUCK JONES is business manager.

THE STUDENT

The College magazine is The Student, an outlet for the creative abilities of students. Short stories, feature articles, poems, and cartoons are among the material included in the magazine.

Manuscripts, accepted for publication on the basis of individual merit, may be submitted by any student. Founded in 1882, the magazine is the oldest College publication. It is published seven times throughout the school year. DWIGHT PICKARD is the editor, and SYLVIA BURROUGHS is business manager.

THE HOWLER

The Howler, College yearbook, is a word-and-picture story of the year's activities and a valuable record for future reference. Individual, group, and action pictures are included to record the complete story of college life. The Howler has appeared each year since 1903.

MARY GAIL KOONTZ and DON PHELPS are co-editors, and WAYNE EUDY is business manager.

WFDD

WFDD, the "voice of Wake Forest College," has facilities that provide for participation of students interested in all phases of broadcasting, including programming, announcing, advertising and radio engineering. The station is equipped to cover not only the campus but to reach the townspeople as well by means of FM, with programs designed for cultural stimulation.

The College Theater

Aspiring actors find opportunities in the College Theater to display their talents for acting, lighting, staging and make-up.

The Theater presents five major productions a year. Besides these, the coming season will include workshops for freshmen and several one-act plays directed by students.

Plays are now presented in a theater located on the fourth floor of the Library. In the future the College plans to construct a Fine Arts Building that will meet all the needs of a college theater group.

James H. Walton is director of the Theater, which was begun in 1943. Participation is open to all interested students.

College Debating

Wake Forest debaters, traditionally successful in collegiate debate circles, have won national recognition for the College. The teams usually attend intercollegiate forensic tournaments at such places as New York, Miami, Washington, West Point, and Notre Dame.

The College sponsors the Dixie Classics Debate Tournament each winter, bringing outstanding national teams to the campus. Novice debate teams are also organized and a novice tournament is held in the fall.

Wake Forest annually is among the top teams in the nation, taking both team and individual honors at various tournaments each year. Oratory, extemporaneous, impromptu and after-dinner speaking are also stressed. Franklin R. Shirley is director of the debate squad.

Literary Societies

The Euzelian and Philomathesian Literary Societies, whose purpose is the intellectual improvement of their members, are the oldest among the more distinguished student organizations on the campus.

Organized when the College was founded in 1834, the societies have had as members men and women who later became governors, attorneys, physicians, ministers and teachers.

At first membership was compulsory, as the societies were an integral part of college life. Since the establishment of numerous administrative departments and social and professional fraternities, the literary societies have been reduced in number to a select group of students interested in training themselves in public speaking, literary appreciation and cultural understanding.

Both societies occupy meeting halls on the second floor of the east wing of Reynolda Hall.

The societies meet regularly and have programs of a varied nature: faculty, student, and guest speakers; debating, impromptu speaking and other speech activities by members; literary discussions. Traditionally inter-society forensic contests were held twice during the academic year on Society Day in the fall and on Founders' Day in the spring. These contests have not been held for the past two years, but the societies hope for a revival of them.

This year GLENN HAMM will serve as president of the Euzelian Society. The Philomathesian Society has not yet elected its president.

Membership is open to all.

Religious Activities

The Baptist Student Union directs student religious activities on the campus. The purpose of the program is to afford every member of the student body an opportunity to come to an understanding and acceptance of a faith in God, to develop that faith in service, to discover its relevancy to all areas of life and to participate actively in the program of a local church.

All students may participate in BSU activities. Membership is based upon the student's voluntary choice and/or membership in a local Baptist church. Students of other denominations who take part in such groups as Westminister Fellowship (for Presbyterians), Wesley Foundation (for Methodists), and Canterbury Club (for Episcopalians) are given representation on the BSU Council.

Several unit organizations are sponsored by the BSU. The Cullom Ministerial Conference attempts to give practical instruction in helping prospective ministers become more effective preachers and pastors.

The Christian Education and Service Club provides an opportunity for students to study phases and problems of religious education and a chance to apply in service what is learned.

The Young Women's Auxiliary promotes the study of missions through "taps" programs in the girls' dorms and general monthly meetings.

BSU Sunday activities include Sunday School, Training Union, and fellowship. Daily vespers are held in Davis Chapel.

The BSU also has supper forums, literary discussion groups, and publishes a journal. It sends teams to nearby churches for week-end youth programs, sponsors social events and parties, and assists in the Freshman Orientation program.

An annual BSU pre-school retreat for all students interested is held immediately before the orientation program. The retreat is an orientation to the religious life on campus and seeks to enrich the spiritual life of all who attend. It will be held at Camp Hanes, Winston-Salem YMCA Camp, a few miles from the campus.

DAVID SNIDER is president of the BSU.

Musical Activities

The total resplendency of the musical organizations on campus is revealed each spring when the Music Department takes off its wraps in one giant public "recital."

The occasion is the annual Magnolia Festival which, among other events of a multi-phased program, allows the Music Department to show off its various organizations, including the chapel choir, a touring choir, a band, a Little Symphony and various ensembles of brass and woodwind instruments.

This "unveiling," of course, is merely a proud consummation of the year's extensive musical training and public appearances.

The chapel choir, largest of the groups, presents regular programs, including an annual Christmas vesper service.

The touring choir stages an annual tour presenting programs for schools, civic group and churches in various cities and states. Dr. Thane McDonald, head of the Music Department, is director of the two choirs.

The band produces halftime performances at football games, appears in parades and gives concerts.

The Little Symphony, though relatively new, was acclaimed last year as a significant contributor to the overall musical program at Wake Forest.

Emerson W. Head is director of the Band and the Little Symphony.

The various musical organizations are open to all students by audition. The Music Department encourages widespread participation in all the musical organizations. Instruction by competent teachers is available in all phases of instrumental and vocal activity.

THE SPORTS PROGRAM

The College provides extensive athletic and recreational facilities and a faculty of trained supervisors to direct activities in these fields.

In order to provide for a recreational program for all students, the College maintains athletic fields, tennis courts, and a combination athletic, physical education and recreation building which includes a swimming pool, handball and squash, rhythm studio, arts and crafts room, recreational area, corrective rooms, a gymnastic and westling room, and four separate gymnasiums including a women's gym, a vasity basketball gym and two men's intramural gyms.

Intramural Sports

The department of physical education provides a varied intramural sports program that appeals to the interests of several hundred Wake Forest students every year.

Intramural sports include touch football, golf and tennis (both fall and spring), volleyball, handball, table tennis, badminton, horseshoes and softball.

Competition in team sports is on the basis of fraternity and non-fraternity, or independent, teams. Any individual or group of individuals may organize teams and enter competition in any sport. Individual sports are run on a single-elimination basis, and anyone is eligible to enter. Trophies are awarded to individual and team winners in every sport.

The intramural program is under the direction of Dr. Taylor Dodson of the department of physical education. In 1948 the intramural student manager system was inaugurated to assist the physical education department in the intramural program. The intramural manager and assistant managers are appointed by the physical education staff and handle the details necessary for operation of the program.

Women's Athletics

The women's division of the department of physical education offers each woman an opportunity, through participation in team and individual sports, rhythms, aquatics and tumbling, to acquire skill and knowledge in all phases of physical activities.

Two semesters of physical education are required of all freshman women. Grades are based primarily on achievement in the activity.

Woman's Recreation Association sponsors extracurricular athletics and recreation for women. Individual awards and trophies are based on points which coeds may accumulate by participating in various activities and tournaments.

The Physical Education Majors' Club is composed of all women who are majoring in physical education and those who are interested in it as a profession.

Intercollegiate Sports

In intercollegiate sports the College is a member of the Atlantic Coast Conference, one of the finest athletic circuits in the nation. Wake Forest teams are popularly called the Demon Deacons.

The year-round varsity sports schedule includes football, basketball, baseball, track, wrestling, cross country, golf, tennis, and swimming. Freshman teams have full schedules in all intercollegiate sports.

Other schools in the ACC are Duke University, the University of North Carolina, N. C. State College, Clemson College, and the Universities of South Carolina, Maryland, and Virginia.

Deacon athletic teams have brought much national recognition to Wake Forest.

Wake footballers now are playing home games at Bowman Gray Stadium in Winston-Salem, but plans call for a new stadium near the campus to be constructed in a few years. Home basketball games are played in Winston-Salem's Memorial Coliseum near the campus. Ernie Shore Field, near the Coliseum, is the scene of home baseball games.

The College Songs

DEAR OLD WAKE FOREST

(The Alma Mater)

Dear old Wake Forest!
Thine is a noble name;
Thine is a glorious fame,
Constant and true.
We give thee of our praise,
Adore thine ancient days,
Sing thee our humble lays,
Mother, so dear.

Dear old Wake Forest!
Mystic thy name to cheer;
Be thou our guardian near,
Fore'er and aye.
We bow before thy shrine,
Thy brow with bays entwine,
All honor now be thine,
Mother, today.

OH, HERE'S TO WAKE FOREST

(The Fight Song)

Oh, here's to Wake Forest, a glass of the finest
Red, ruddy Rhenish filled up to the brim!
Her sons they are many, unrivaled by any;
With hearts o'erflowing we will sing her hymn.

(Chorus)

Rah, Rah, Wake Forest, Rah!
Old Alma Mater's sons we are;
We'll herald her story and die for her glory,
Old Gold and Black is ever waving high.

As frosh we adore her; as sophs we explore her,
And carve our names upon her ancient walls;
As juniors patrol her; as seniors extol her,

And weep to leave fore'er her sacred halls.
Though fortune forsake us and fate o'ertake us,
We'll ne'er forget our dear old college days,
And o'er memory's treasure we'll drink without measure,
And sing fore'er our Alma Mater's praise.

ANOTHER FIGHT SONG

(This song was written by the late Dr. Hubert McNeill Poteat, who in June, 1956, retired after 48 years as Professor of Latin at Wake Forest.)

Well, what do you think we're doing here today?
Why, we're out to see the Demon Deacons play.
And when the day is done,
And the victory is won,
If you listen you will hear the people say . . .

(Chorus)

Wake Forest, Wake Forest,
'Tis the grand old college we adore.
And with pride we'll tell the story
Of our Alma Mater's glory.
May she live, live, live forevermore.

Well, who do you think is on the other side?
It's the Tar Heels (Wolfpack, Devils, etc.)
And we'll take them for a ride.
The Deacs will get so rough,
And they'll treat the foe so tough,
That they'll think they've been boiled, baked and fried.

REGULATIONS

The Bulletin

Information pertaining to charges, estimated expenses, financial arrangements, requirements for degrees, courses in liberal arts, the summer term, an index of students, and listing of all pofessors and administrative staffs may be found in the Bulletin of Wake Forest College. The Bulletin also contains more detailed coverage of much of the material in this handbook.

The Honor System

Wake Forest College assumes the personal integrity—honor, if you please— of each student enrolled.

The College has asked, "Do you wish to be placed on your honor? Can you be placed on your honor?"

The students have answered, "Yes."

The College has said, "You are on YOUR HONOR."

To assure the effectiveness of the "honor" idea, the students drew up a set of rules—an acceptable standard of conduct. And they elected a group of their fellow students to enforce this standard of conduct.

Subsequently the representatives, composing an Honor Council, charged each student to share in the responsibility of making the system effective. "These," the Council said, displaying the body of statutes endorsed by the students. "—these are the things we must do."

"These," our self-endorsed statute (No. I) says, are the things required by this community, that you are to require of yourself.

Particular emphasis is given here to the rule concerning cheating. The student is required to sign at the end of all written work a pledge which reads: "I have neither given nor received aid on this work, nor have I knowledge of anyone doing so." Thus the pledge has a threefold obligation. First, the student must give absolutely no aid to anyone on written work. Second, he must ask no one for aid. Third, he must report any violation of the honor system.

The Honor System, however, is more than a rule about cheating on examinations. It extends to all phases of student behavior, as shown in sections 1-15, Statute I of the Constitution.

It is the duty of a person who is guilty of violating the system to turn himself in to the Council. When a student sees another student violating the honor system, as cheating on an examination, he should ask that person to report himself to the Council or to the Dean. The Honor Council has full authority over such cases. A student may, however, appeal his case to the Executive Committee of the faculty after a trial by the Council.

WGA for Coeds

The Woman's Government Association is the governing body of all undergraduate resident women of the College in matters of social regulations. All women, both resident and day students, are also subject to the Honor System of the Student Government.

A separate handbook published by the WGA contains the constitution of the organization, the purpose of which, as set forth in the preamble is: ". . . to regulate all matters pertaining to the life of the women of Wake Forest College not under the jurisdiction of the Faculty; to increase a sense of individual responsibility; to further a spirit of unity among the women of the College; and to cooperate with the Faculty in creating and maintaining high ideals for women of this college."

Student Marriages

In the rules and regulations of the Woman's Government Association is the following statement:

A woman student who plans to continue her enrollment in college after marriage must have her parent or guardian notify the Dean of Women before the marriage takes place. She must secure the permission of the Executive Committee of the faculty to continue her enrollment and, except in unusual circumstances, must secure off-campus living quarters.

The following regualtion is in effect for men students in the College:

A male student who plans to continue his enrollement in college after marriage to a woman student in the College must notify the Dean of the College before the marriage takes place. He must secure the permission of the Executive Committee of the faculty to continue his enrollment.

This new regulation was adopted in accordance with the principle that a man student and a woman student guilty of the same violation of College rules should receive the same penalty.

Room Contract

Each student, in accepting his/her assignment, agrees to abide by this contract, the Constitution of the Student Body, and the dormitory regulations printed on the reverse side, and to permit, in his presence, duly authorized personnel to inspect his room and any effects in such room. Authorized personnel may enter rooms at any time to check for cleanliness or to make necessary repairs, or when it appears to the College that the safety of the students is endangered or where property damage is involved.

1. All payments for room rent are made at registration. Room rental is not refunded upon withdrawal. The occupant may not sublet the room to another student.

2. A woman student may exchange her room only with the advanced written approval of the Dean of Women. A charge of $5.00 will be incurred for authorized room changes made after October 1 in the fall semester and after February 15 in the spring semester. (A charge of $5.00 will be incurred for all authorized changes made after the first week of summer school.)

A fine of $20.00 will be incurred for any exchange made otherwise.

3. 5. All residents must secure keys for dormitory rooms at the Office of the Director of Residences. All issues and exchanges must be made at the office. All keys must be returned, even though the student plans to occupy the same room for the summer session or for the ensuing fall semester. Failure to return a room key under these circumstances leaves the student liable for any damages which may occur to the room or suite.

6. Dormitories will be open at 9 a.m. on Wednesday, September 7, 1960. The dormitories will be closed at noon on the first day of the Christmas holidays and will reopen at noon on the last day of the Christmas holidays. Dormitories will be open at noon of the day prior to the opening of the summer session and will close at 6 p.m. on the day the summer session ends. Occupancy of a room otherwise may be permitted only in an extreme emergency and must have the written approval of the Director of Residences or the Dean of Women, as appropriate, for which a charge of $1.00 will be made for each day or fraction thereof.

7. The College assumes no liability for loss or damage to personal property.
